SQUARE

BARRISTERS

Eleanor Durdy

Call: 2017 (Pupil)

Civil Fraud

Eleanor will be receiving instructions in the second six months of her pupillage from the 2nd March 2021.

During the first six months of her pupillage, Eleanor has observed a number of small claims, stage 3 hearings and infant settlement hearings. She has a keen interest in pursuing a successful civil career alongside her criminal practice and has undertaken a number of civil noting briefs in the first six months of her pupillage and has a proven ability to take a thorough and detailed note of proceedings for those instructing. Eleanor will be receiving civil instructions in the second six months of her pupillage.

Eleanor is currently undertaking her pupillage at Park Square Barristers.

Prior to starting pupillage, Eleanor worked as a lecturer in law, tutoring on degree level programmes, and as programme leader for the CILEx Certificate in Law and Practice. As such, she regularly delivered lectures and drafted exam papers, demonstrating her ability to both interpret and comprehensibly explain the law.

Eleanor has a strong academic background having received a First Class Honours degree from the University of Northumbria. During her time at University, Eleanor volunteered with a number of societies and University lead projects, contributing to the quality of life and experience of fellow students, leading to her being awarded the Northumbria Students' Union Lifetime Achievement Award.
