

PARK
SQUARE

BARRISTERS

Georgina Coade

Call: 2005 (Door Tenant)

Crime

Currently not available to receive instructions.

Georgina enjoys a practice prosecuting and defending in equal measure. She is a grade 3 prosecutor. Her work encompasses the spectrum of criminal offending, including serious sexual offences, drugs, fraud and serious violence. Her work increasingly focuses on serious and organised crime.

Georgina is adept at condensing complex matters for simple and effective presentation to lay clients and juries. She is also noted for her patience and sensitivity with victims, lay clients and their families.

Georgina has recently worked overseas. As the UK Government's Criminal Justice Adviser to Ethiopia, she worked in region to help counter organised crime, in particular human trafficking and smuggling.

“Highly recommended – she is meticulous and has a serene manner when dealing with all parties.” — Instructing solicitor

Notable cases

- R v P [2016] – Successfully defended man accused of committing historic sex offences against his daughter.
- R v F [2016] – Successfully prosecuted man accused of voyeurism offences committed against his daughter.
- R v S & others [2016] – Prosecution junior to Deanna Heer (Treasury Counsel, 5 Paper Buildings) in gangland attempted murder tried at the Central Criminal Court.
- R v Rasheed [2015] – Prosecution junior to Stephen Hopper (5 Paper Buildings) in prosecution of an NCA investigation into a money service bureau manager who laundered over £10m through a network in the Netherlands and UAE.
- R v Hussain and others [2015] – Prosecution junior to Katharine Robinson in 6-handed referral fee fraud on behalf of City of London Police and CPS Complex Casework Unit.
- R v Stubbley and Lee [2015] – Prosecuted defendants who received a total of 29 years imprisonment for robbery.
- R v Youngs – Obtained suspended prison sentence for pensioner who grew £115,000-worth of cannabis to pay for his funeral.
- R v Graver and others – Prosecution junior in multi-handed conspiracy to supply drugs; involved complex disclosure issues.
- R v Laher – Obtained acquittal for defendant accused of sexually assaulting young pupil from his madrasa.
- R v Khan – Secured acquittal of defendant accused of importing £20,000-worth of heroin. Issues relating to destruction of evidence, confessions, covert sources and abuse of process.
- R v Thompson – Represented carer responsible for assaulting disabled patient in his care.

Education:

2001 University of Nottingham, BA (Hons) Art History

2004 College of Law, PGDip Law ('Very competent')

2005 Nottingham Law School, BVC ('Very competent')

Career:

2005 Pupil of Fiona Dix-Dyer at No 6, Leeds

2006 Tenant at No 6

2013 Grade 3 prosecutor

2015 No 6 becomes Park Square Barristers Tenant at 5 Paper Buildings, London Door Tenant at Park Square Barristers

2016 - 2018 Criminal Justice Adviser, Ethiopia

-
- R v X – Defended 16-year-old with severe learning & behavioural difficulties in the Youth Court on charges of sexual assault of a 3 and 6 year-old. Issues of abuse of process and fitness to plead.
-
- R v Kolompar and others – Four-handed people-trafficking case. Prosecution junior to Tim Capstick.
-
- R v Wilcock and others – Prosecution junior to Richard Wright QC in nine-handed conspiracy to produce and supply cannabis; involved extensive confiscation proceedings.
-

Contact Georgina's clerks

Andrew Thornton on 0113 213 5202

Gina Hawkins on 0113 213 5205

Rebecca Wilson on 0113 213 5203

Hannah Dempsey on 0113 213 5211

Elaine Foster-Morgan on 0113 213 5217

Regulatory & Public

Currently not available to receive instructions.

Georgina has regularly prosecuted on behalf of Trading Standards. As junior to Katherine Robinson, she assisted in the prosecution of a four-handed multi-million-pound conspiracy to defraud and regulatory prosecution.

As part of these proceedings and many others in her general criminal practice, Georgina also has substantial experience of confiscation proceedings.

Georgina has experience prosecuting offences of copyright theft and cases involving complex computer evidence. She has also undertaken cases for the Department of Business, Innovation and Skills.

“She is meticulous and has a serene manner when dealing with all parties.” — Instructing solicitor

Notable cases

-
- R v Saunders [2015] – Conspiracy to defraud prosecution on behalf of National Trading Standards eCrime unit. Defendant set up a complex web of fraudulent online businesses to effect scams.
-
- R v Jones [2015] – Prosecuted 'rogue traders' for fraud and offences contrary to the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations. Case involved numerous and vulnerable complainants
-
- R v Clough [2013] – Successfully prosecuted builder for multiple frauds on vulnerable victims in a case featured on ITV's Rogue Traders
-
- R v Jones, Dodds & Wild [2013] – Successfully prosecuted defendants for mis-selling will-writing services and financial products under the Consumer Protection Regulations
-
- R v Christofi & others [2011] – Prosecution junior to Katherine Robinson in four-handed £2million conspiracy to defraud and regulatory prosecution. Case involved around 200 complainants
-

Contact Georgina's clerk

Madeleine Gray on 0113 202 8603

Patrick Urbina on 0113 213 5250

Park Square Barristers
6 Park Square East
Leeds LS1 2LW

DX number:
26402
Leeds Park Square

T 0113 245 9763
fees@psqb.co.uk
parksquarebarristers.co.uk