Ifzal Khan

Call: 2000 (Solicitor 2004)

Personal Injury

Ifzal Khan has a thriving practice in the area of criminal & personal injuries and industrial disease, having been instructed to appear in a wide range of fast-track and multi-track cases.

Ifzal's prior career as a solicitor provides him with an in-depth knowledge of all aspects of the Civil Procedure Rules (and of personal injury in particular).

His practice currently focuses on:

- Occupier's liability
- Employer's liability
- Industrial disease
- Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority (CICA) cases
- Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB) cases.

Civil Fraud

Ifzal Khan has many years' experience dealing with hundreds of fraud cases, especially personal injury (PI) fraud cases including low-velocity impact (LVI), credit-hire fraud, phantom passengers, staged accidents and fraud rings.

Education:

1998 - Leeds Metropolitan University, LLB (Hons)

2000 - Manchester Metropolitan University, BVC

Career:

2002 - Irwin Mitchell Solicitors

2004 - Burr Sugden Solicitors

2006 - Geoffrey Lucas Solicitors

2007 - Abrahams Solicitors (own firm)

2013 - Tenant at No 6, Leeds

2015 - No 6 becomes Park Square Barristers

Ifzal dealt with fraud cases from inception to conclusion when he practised as a solicitor prior to being called to the Bar. This background provides Ifzal with an in-depth knowledge of all aspects of the Civil Procedure Rules (and of personal injury in particular), and enables him to provide pragmatic and realistic prospects on merit.

He has drafted particulars to a very high standard, as well as defences, witness statements and N244 applications. He provides a fast turnaround on advices and his opinions are robust.

Ifzal is instructed to attend case management conferences, application hearings and trials. He has advised in conferences before and after the commencement of formal proceedings.
